Recruitment Pack

About us

We're one of 47 Wildlife Trusts spread across the UK, the Isle of Man and Alderney.

The Wildlife Trust for Lancashire, Manchester and North Merseyside (LWT) was founded in 1962 by people who knew they needed to take action for nature. Since then we have grown to be the largest nature conservation body in the area.

We are uniquely positioned to lead change in our region, working at a grass roots, local level, whilst also being part of a strong cohesive national movement. We work to protect wild spaces, and re-introduce key species and habitats, protecting the biodiversity of our area so that nature can recover.

At LWT we believe that:

- Wildlife has intrinsic value, bringing colour, beauty and wonder to all our lives.
- The natural environment is under immense and growing threat, where we live and across the world.
- We are part of the natural world, and wildlife is relevant to every part of our lives; everything we do has an impact on it, and the natural environment affects our health, our wealth and our state of mind.
- Everyone can make a positive contribution to wildlife and can benefit from it.

Our Mission

- Enable wildlife's recovery in our area by working in partnership with others to conserve, restore, create and connect habitats and to increase species abundance;
- Connect people with nature and help them to take action for wildlife, wherever they are.

Our Vision

- Nature is recovering on a grand scale across Lancashire, Manchester and North Merseyside, and in our sea, and that everyone is able to enjoy our increasingly abundant wildlife.

Our Work

Our core conservation work includes land management, advocacy for the natural world with key decision-makers, species re-introduction, protecting threatened species and collecting essential scientific data. We do this on land and at sea to secure a brighter future for both wildlife and wild places across our region.

We work all over our area with schools, colleges and community groups, running inspiring sessions covering everything from Forest School and orienteering, to Wild Family and Nature Tots sessions.

We believe that wildlife and nature have the power to instill confidence, heal the mind and help people meet their potential, which is why we champion a number of ecotherapy-based projects for both children and adults and the positive impacts to date have been phenomenal.

Our Nature Reserves

We have saved many special places, acquiring and managing many of them as nature reserves.

We look after 50 sites (including 42 of our own nature reserves), and a total of around 1,300 hectares of habitat, creating a network where people and wildlife can thrive, on your doorstep.

We believe that limited mobility shouldn't mean missing out on wildlife. Many of our reserves have accessible paths and boardwalks, disabled facilities and accessible bird hides, so people can fully immerse themselves in the great outdoors and discover the wonderful wildlife that lives on our doorstep.

We also have 6 offices based across Greater Manchester, North Merseyside, West Lancashire, East Lancashire and North Lancashire. Our Head Office is based on the outskirts of Preston.

Strategic Goals by 2030

- Nature is in recovery with abundant, diverse wildlife and natural processes creating wilder land and seascapes where people and nature thrive.

30% of land and sea is in recovery.

- People are better connected to nature in their lives and more are taking purposeful action for wildlife.

1 in 4 people are taking action for nature.

- We have the financial and human resources, systems and skills that we need to improve our impact for nature's recovery.

LWT will be bigger, better and more joined up.

Our Strategy

Defend wildlife and wild places

We will stand up for the environment and protect wild spaces, enhancing them for both people and wildlife. We will encourage biodiversity, and work with land owners and other organisations in partnership, to create a network of habitats across our region where people and wildlife can thrive.

Inspire people to take action for their local wildlife

We will inspire people to enjoy and protect the wildlife and wild spaces on their doorstep. We will help people learn how to live more sustainably, and demonstrate the benefits of nature to their health and wellbeing. We will engage people of all ages, from all communities to take action for wildlife and we will foster the environmental leaders of the future.

Base our work on sound evidence

We will use evidence from sound science and research to further ecological understanding and demonstrate the needs, benefits and outcomes of nature conservation. We will use this evidence to focus our efforts on the areas most in need of protecting and champion those species that need a helping hand.

- Our education team and project officers engage more than 20,000 children in wildlife-related activities.
- On average every 10 miles you travel in the region means you will pass a Wildlife Trust project.

Our Organisation

About the role

The Lancashire Wildlife Trust is the regions local charity, working hard to improve the local area for wildlife. Since 1912, The Wildlife Trusts have been speaking out for nature in the UK. Our organisation is unique - while most of our work for wildlife takes place at local grassroots level, we have a national voice. We support and are supported by the 46 Wildlife Trusts in the United Kingdom. With 28,000 members in the region and 800,000 members nationally we represent a strong body of opinion when it comes to wildlife issues.

Lancashire Wildlife Trust own and manage some of the rarest habitats in Northern England and work towards being an exemplar of land management for nature's recovery at scale. We own and manage 36 nature reserves, ranging from 1 to 270 hectares across our operational area, with a diverse range of habitats including grassland, heathland, woodland, wetland and peatland. Our largest reserves include Brockholes, Lunt Meadows, Mere Sands Wood, Longworth Clough, and Aughton Woods.

We are geographically a large region, with a widespread number of small to medium reserves. Many of our nature reserves are peri urban which gives us opportunities for volunteering and financial input and challenges with management of small sites and antisocial behaviour.

As Nature Reserves Team Leader, you will lead a dedicated team responsible for delivering ambitious nature recovery across a cluster of Lancashire Wildlife Trust reserves, with a primary focus on Brockholes Nature Reserve and sites across Central, East Lancashire and West Lancashire. Combining strategic leadership with hands-on conservation management, you will oversee the planning and delivery of reserve management plans, championing innovative approaches such as habitat restoration, species reintroductions, natural process recovery, and collaborative working with neighbouring landowners.

You will inspire and support a team of staff, volunteers, students and contractors to deliver high-quality practical conservation work, including woodland, grassland and wetland management, livestock welfare, infrastructure maintenance, and habitat enhancement. Alongside day-to-day operational leadership, you will play a key role in securing funding, managing budgets, ensuring health and safety and regulatory compliance, and maintaining high standards of environmental stewardship across the Trust's reserves.

Working closely with colleagues across the Nature Recovery directorate and wider Trust, you will contribute to organisational strategy, develop partnerships, promote the impact of conservation work through public engagement and media opportunities, and help create meaningful experiences for visitors and volunteers. This is an exciting opportunity for an experienced conservation professional who enjoys balancing leadership, practical land management, and strategic thinking to deliver nature recovery at landscape scale while inspiring people to connect with and care for wildlife.
